

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910457908003321
Autore	Tomlinson Sally
Titolo	Education in a Post Welfare Society [[electronic resource]]
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Maidenhead, : McGraw-Hill Education, 2005
ISBN	1-280-94824-8 9786610948246 0-335-22810-0
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (289 p.)
Collana	Introducing social policy Education in a post-welfare society
Disciplina	379.41
Soggetti	Education and state Education Social Sciences Education, Special Topics Education and state - Political aspects - Great Britain Education - Social aspects - Great Britain Education - Great Britain Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di contenuto	Cover; Half title; Series editor; Title; Copyright; Dedication; Contents; List of boxes; Series editor's foreword; Acknowledgements; List of abbreviations; Introduction; Chapter one; Chapter two; Chapter three; Chapter four; Chapter five; Chapter six; Chapter seven; Chapter eight; Chapter nine; Chapter ten; Chapter eleven; References; Index
Sommario/riassunto	Provides a critical overview of education policy. This book demonstrates how a relatively decentralised education system became a system in which funding, teaching and curriculum are centrally controlled and privatisation encouraged. It examines the relationship of education policy to social class, race, gender and the economy.