

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910458116503321
Autore	Lyman Richard W
Titolo	Stanford in turmoil [[electronic resource]] : campus unrest, 1966-1972 // Richard W. Lyman
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Stanford, Calif., : Stanford General Books, c2009
ISBN	0-8047-7101-4
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (379 p.)
Disciplina	378.794/73
Soggetti	Student strikes - California - Stanford - History - 20th century Student movements - California - Stanford - History - 20th century Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 213-226) and index.
Nota di contenuto	The Sterling-Terman era -- Early Vietnam stirrings, Dean Allen's departure, David Harris's arrival, and Stanford's first sit-in -- How I became provost -- The stage is set -- The Martin Luther King Jr. crisis -- The first Old Union sit-in -- Classified research, SRI, and the coming of Ken Pitzer -- AEL, Encina, and calling the police -- Ken Pitzer's departure -- My presidency begins, and the Franklin Case is initiated -- The Franklin Case and after -- Trying to make sense of the campus unrest.
Sommario/riassunto	A rare insider's look at Stanford's experience of dramatic political unrest during the late 1960's and early 1970's, during which time the author served as the university's vice president, provost, and then president.