Sommario/riassunto	Morgan Tsvangiraiis appointment as Zimbabweis Prime Minister in 2009 followed many yearsi leadership of the Zimbabwe Congress of Trades Unions and the Movement for Democratic Change. How has that experience equipped him for high national office? Does he have the personal, intellectual and political qualities required to be President? In July 2004, as he was awaiting the verdict in his treason trial, Tsvangirai spent several days in conversation with Stephen Chan. Chan was concerned to find out if Tsvangirai was more than emerely a charismatic leader of the oppositioni; if he had ehis own intel

Sommario/riassunto	Stephen Rowland explores the relationship between the tutor (or facilitator) and the professional worker on post-experience professional courses. His emphasis is on the processes of reflection and enquiry in professional learning and is not content specific. Drawing upon his experience as a course tutor and the perspectives of students, he suggests an approach to professional learning which is firmly rooted in the experience and interests of the student.
