Sommario/riassunto

Consisting of twenty-three essays, The Decade of the Great War examines the 1910's as a pivotal period with deep connections both to the imperialist heyday of the 1880's/1890's, and to the vibrant global politics, commercial expansion, and social movements of the 1920's. It critically reviews Japan's diplomatic and military relations, offering both a reexamination of some of the issues addressed in the earlier scholarship on the war years and a needed sense of the breadth of Japan's new international relations. It highlights the importance of transnational approaches to the study of Japan's domestic, intra-imperial, and foreign affairs. Together, the essays in this volume provide a wide-range of perspectives on relations within Asia and between Asian, European, and North American states. Contributors are: Isao Chiba, Yuehsen Juliette Chung, Evan Dawley, Martin Dusinger, Bert Edström, Selçuk Esenbel, Rustin B. Gates, Tze-ki Hon, Masato Kimura, Chaisung Lim, John D.
