Sommario/riassunto	We live in a leadership-obsessed society. The result is that we assume nearly any social or economic ill can be mended through better leadership. Sometimes, this commitment to leadership is followed by hero worshipping, wishful thinking and misplaced hope. Seeking to understand the faith we place in leadership, the authors draw on a number of	n-depth studies of managers trying to ""do"" leadership. It presents si	x metaphors for the leader: as gardener, cosy-crafter, saint, cyborg, cor	nmander and bully. Some of these offer unexpected insights into how le	adership does and does n
