

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910459820403321
Autore	Chubb Philip
Titolo	Power failure : the inside story of climate politics under Rudd and Gillard / / Philip Chubb
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Collingwood, Victoria : , : Black Inc. Agenda, , [2014] ©2014
ISBN	1-922231-51-7
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (449 p.)
Disciplina	363.738746
Soggetti	Climate change mitigation Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Includes index.
Nota di contenuto	FRONT COVER; PUBLISHED BY BLACK INC. AGENDA; COPYRIGHT; CONTENTS; NOTE ON SOURCES; LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS; TIMELINE; INTRODUCTION; PART ONE THE DEATH OF INNOCENCE; DARKNESS AT THE HEART OF GOVERNMENT; THE RUSH FOR THE GOLDEN DOORS; SQUANDERING CONSENSUS; ABSOLUTE POLITICAL COWARDICE; TWO LEADERS; PART TWO THE END OF CLIMATE CHANGE; THE SEEDS OF DESTRUCTION; REALLY FUNDAMENTALLY WRONG; DEAD SILENCE; STORMS INSIDE; CASHY, CASHY, CASHY; THE LIVED EXPERIENCE; CONCLUSION; ACKNOWLEDGMENTS; ENDNOTES; INDEX
Sommario/riassunto	The inside story of a wicked problem ... What should Australia do about climate change? A succession of leaders has tried to answer this question - and come unstuck. Politicians and public servants call it a "wicked" problem - one highly resistant to solution - and many approaches have been developed and discarded by the major parties. Some believe Australia's dependence on coal makes effective action impossible. In this book, award-winning journalist Philip Chubb examines the tenacity of fossil-fuel interests and their allies in business, politics and the media when their power is challenged. He