| Sommario/riassunto | Charlotte Bronte's enduring classic-the story of a young woman's quest for love and acceptance in Victorian EnglandThe young orphan Jane Eyre inhabits a fragile position. Born to a good family but with no wealth of her own, Jane is sent to live with her uncle's family-an arrangement that turns sour when he dies-and then to Lowood, a punitive and tyrannically run boarding school for girls. As she matures into adulthood, Jane's fiery spirit and independence grow more acute, as does her sensitivity to the world around her. Now governess of the secluded Thornfield Hall, the first place she has eve |
