

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910460392703321
Titolo	Critical perspectives on the globally mobile professional and managerial class // guest editors, Dr Steve McKenna, Professor M. N. Ravishankar and Professor David Weir
Pubbl/distr/stampa	[Bradford, West Yorkshire, England] : , : Emerald, , [2015] ©2015
ISBN	1-78441-993-1
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (93 p.)
Collana	Critical perspectives on international business, , 1742-2043 ; ; Volume 11 Number 2
Disciplina	327
Soggetti	Globalization International business enterprises - Social aspects Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references.
Nota di contenuto	Cover; Editorial; Critical perspectives on the globally mobile professional and managerial class; Perceived mobility of impact: global elites and the bono effect; Wall Street women: professional saviors of the global economy; Being and becoming a professional accountant in Canada; Making critical sense of discriminatory practices in the Canadian workplace; Showing them the door (nicely): rejection discourses and practices of a global elite
Sommario/riassunto	In this e-book five distinctive and critical contributions draw our attention to a range of issues in relation to a transnational elite and a globally mobile professional and managerial class; each of the contributions deal with important groups and questions that relate to a 'transnational elite'. Together the papers in this e-book offer a diverse range of investigations of the global elite. Their diversity indicates the breadth of possible ways in which a global elite and globally mobile professionals might be studied and highlights the substantial opportunities that exist to research such gr