

| | |
|-------------------------|--|
| 1. Record Nr. | UNINA9910460393003321 |
| Autore | Montesinos Fernando <active 17th century., > |
| Titolo | Memorias antiguas historiales del Peru // by Fernando Montesinos ; edited by Philip Ainsworth Means with Clements R. Markham |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa | London ; ; New York : , : Routledge, , 2016 |
| ISBN | 1-317-09778-5 1-315-59485-4 1-283-04791-8 9786613047915 1-4094-1654-2 |
| Descrizione fisica | x, 132, xlii p., [10] p. of plates : ill |
| Collana | Works issued by the Hakluyt Society ; ; 2nd ser., no. 48 |
| Altri autori (Persone) | MarkhamClements R, Sir, <1830-1916.> (Clements Robert) MeansPhilip Ainsworth |
| Disciplina | 985.02 |
| Soggetti | Incas Indians of South America - Peru Electronic books. Peru History To 1548 |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Inglese |
| Formato | Materiale a stampa |
| Livello bibliografico | Monografia |
| Note generali | First published 2010 by Ashgate Publishing. Reprint. Originally published: London : Hakluyt Society, 1920. |
| Nota di bibliografia | Includes bibliographical references and indexes. |
| Nota di contenuto | ch. I. Of the manner in which government and good order were first established among the Indians of Piru -- ch. II. How the families of Cuzco raised up Manco Capac as their Lord, and of an Embassy which other Lords sent to him -- ch. III. Of a strange event which took place in Cuzco while the King Manco Capac and the Lords of the Region were making ready for the marriage feasts -- ch. IV. How, through the deaths of Manco Capac and of the neighbouring Lords, great wars broke forth between their successors, and of the end that was put to the matter by a strange event -- ch. V. Of the esteem in which were held Sinchi Cozque Pachacuti and his sons and relatives ; and of the outcome of the war which the Lords of Antaguailas made against them -- ch. VI. Of the things which Inti Capac Yupanqui ordered in Cuzco with respect to religion and to government -- ch. VII. Of the other | matters which the King Inti Capac ordered for the good government of his kingdom and of his death -- ch. VIII. Concerning the signs which appeared in the sky in the time of Manco Capac, second of that name -- ch. IX. Of what occurred in the time of this King in Cuzco, and of the origin of the giants in Piru -- ch. X. Of the King Titu Yupanqui Pachacuti and of the reforms which he made in his kingdom -- ch. XI. Of other Peruvian Kings, and of some events in their reigns -- ch. XII. Continues the succession of the Peruvian Kings -- ch. XIII. Concerning the events and succession of some of the Kings of Piru -- ch. XIV. Of the confusion which was caused in Cuzco by the entrance of strange peoples into Piru, because of which the use of letters was lost -- ch. XV. Of the events in the time of Tupac Cauri Pachacuti the Seventh, and of other Peruvian Kings -- ch. XVI. Of the origin of the Kings Ingas and of the manner in which they introduced themselves into the government -- ch. XVII. In which the subject of the last chapter is continued and the outcome of the matter is related -- ch. XVIII. Concerning the marriage of Inga Roca -- ch. XIX. How the King of Vilcas and other Lords sent their obedience to Inga Roca, and of his return to Cuzco -- ch. XX. Of what befell Inga Capac Yupanqui and his brother, and of the lives of other Ingas -- ch. XXI. Certain things are told relating to the antecedents and deeds of the Inga Sinchi Roca -- ch. XXII. Of the manner in which the Inga Sinchi Roca entered Cuzco triumphant, and of his death -- ch. XXIII. Of the time in which Inga Huira Cocha began to reign, and of his deeds and achievements -- ch. XXIV. How Inga Huira Cocha set forth from Cuzco to the conquest of the Chachapoyas and of the Paltas -- ch. XXV. Of what Inga Huira Cocha did in Quito, and how he sent troops to the conquest of the Cofanes -- ch. XXVI. How Inga Huira Cocha returned to the province of the Canares and conquered it; and of the reason why that province is called Tumipampa -- ch. XXVII. Of Tupac Yupanqui, eighth of the Ingas, and how his son, Huaina Capac, succeeded him -- ch. XXVIII. How the Lord of Cayambe fortified himself with many troops in a lake called Yaguarcocha, and how the Inca conquered him.
