Sommario/riassunto	This monograph shows that the typically obligatory nature of predicate-argument agreement in phi-features (phi-agreement) cannot be captured through 'derivational time-bombs' - elements of the initial representation that cannot be part of a well-formed, end-of-the-derivation structure, and which are eliminated by the application of phi-agreement itself. This includes, but is not limited to, the 'uninterpretable features' of Chomsky 2000, 2001. Instead, it requires recourse to an operation - one whose invocation is obligatory, but whose successful culmination is not enforced by the grammar.

Sommario/riassunto	The contributions of this book are the results of a conference of the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) in March 2011. The underlying consideration was simple: In language teaching and cultural studies, media are essential - why not resort to historical sources? They can be used in many ways, have a high recognition value and offer innumerable points of contact to the topics of regional and media studies. First, relevant experts present the most important collections and portals on the Internet and enter into the question of the informative and practical value of historical sources. The second part deals in a more detailed manner with aural sources, movies, political cartoons and posters as well as street names and texts of worker literature.

Die Beiträge des vorliegenden Bandes gehen auf eine Fachtagung des Deutschen Akademischen Austauschdienstes (DAAD) im März 2011 zurück. Ihr lag eine simple Überlegung zugrunde: Im Sprach- und Landeskundeunterricht sind Medien unerlässlich – warum nicht auf historische Quellen zurückgreifen? Sie sind vielseitig einsetzbar, haben einen hohen Wiedererkennungswert und bieten unzählige Anknüpfungspunkte an landeskundliche und medienwissenschaftliche Themen. Die Beiträge einschlägiger Fachwissenschaftler stellen zunächst die wichtigsten Sammlungen und Portale im Internet vor und fragen nach Aussagekraft und Praxiswert historischer Quellen. Eingehender behandelt werden sodann die Quellen Tondokument, Spielfilm, Karikatur und Plakat sowie Straßennamen und Texte der Arbeiterliteratur.
