Sommario/riassunto	This collection of studies explores recent research in the area of gender and language use experienced around the world. Featuring an interdisciplinary and global approach, the contributors demonstrate how focus on gender and language creates the lived experience. The studies in this book use gender and language to analyze a broad range of topics including religion, politics, education and sexuality. Contributions include the use of language of a new female bishop in Canada, heteronormativity in language use in Croatia, women's magazines in Japan, and the electoral code in Cameroon. Using criti
