Sommario/riassunto	Protecting and promoting human rights requires balancing the interests of individuals and groups with the interests of society including security, public health and public order. This book examines Australia's human rights record and a range of options in the debate over adequate and appropriate human rights protection. This book presents the topic in three chapters: Human rights in Australia; Arguments for a bill of rights; and Arguments against a bill of rights.

Sommario/riassunto	Ce livre nous fait revivre le fonctionnement des écoles normales depuis l'époque de leur splendeur jusqu'à la crise actuelle à laquelle la réforme de 1979 n'a pas mis un terme. Mais le propos n'est pas seulement historique. L'auteur aborde ici la question toujours brûlante de la formation des maîtres, qui déborde largement le cadre de la seule école élémentaire.
