

|                         |  |
|-------------------------|--|
| 1. Record Nr.           | UNINA9910461341703321  |
| Titolo                  | The human person in science and theology [[electronic resource] /] / editors, Niels Henrik Gregersen, Willen B. Drees, Ulf Gorman  |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa      | Edinburgh, : T & T Clark, 2000   |
| ISBN                    | 1-283-19555-097866131955550-567-25847-5  |
| Descrizione fisica      | 1 online resource (231 p.)   |
| Collana                 | Issues in science and theology   |
| Altri autori (Persone)  | GregersenNiels HenrikDreesWillen BGormanUlf  |
| Disciplina              | 215291.175   |
| Soggetti                | Theological anthropology - ChristianityReligion and scienceElectronic books.   |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Inglese  |
| Formato                 | Materiale a stampa   |
| Livello bibliografico   | Monografia   |
| Note generali           | Description based upon print version of record.  |
| Nota di bibliografia    | Includes bibliographical references and index.   |
| Nota di contenuto       | pt. 1. Towards a bio-cultural paradigm of personhood -- pt. 2. Supervenience, mind and culture.  |
| Sommario/riassunto      | The concept of human personhood is central to theology and philosophy. It has also become crucial in interdisciplinary fields like bio-ethics and theology and science. In this book leading European and American scholars explore the dimensions of personhood from scientific and theological perspectives. Contributors include Mary Midgely, Fraser Watts, Philip Hefner, Michael Welker, Dennis Bielfeldt and John A. Teske. This is an important collection and shows the extent to which the current dialogue between science and theology is no longer confined to discussing the relation of theology with phy |