

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910461390403321
Autore	Brown Kendall W. <1949->
Titolo	A history of mining in Latin America [[electronic resource]] : from the colonial era to the present / / Kendall W. Brown
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Albuquerque, : University of New Mexico Press, 2012
ISBN	1-283-63652-2 0-8263-5107-7
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (282 p.)
Collana	Dialogos series
Disciplina	333.8098
Soggetti	Silver mines and mining - Bolivia - Potos - History Mines and mineral resources - Latin America - History Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	The lure of gold, the wealth of silver -- Potosi and colonial Latin American mining -- Spanish and Portuguese colonialism and mining labor -- Workers' response to colonial mining -- New nations resurrect their mining industry -- The technological and social dimensions of modern mining -- Miners and revolution -- Mining, harmony, and the environment.
Sommario/riassunto	Brown's focus on the legendary mines at Potosi and comparison of its operations to those of other mines in Latin America is a well-written and accessible study that is the first to span the colonial era to the present.