The Sommario/riassunto necessity of defining the concept 'people of God' may be illustrated by at least four elements of present-day experience; the baffling fate and often shocking politics of the State of Israel since the six-day war in 1967; the anti-Jewish elements which still shame many books written for the church, and many Christian declarations about Israel; the stuttering progress in matters of Jewish-Christian unity; and, finally, a Jew and the Son of God, and as such the s the need for a united and unequivocal testimony to Jesus Christ who is
