| Sommario/riassunto | The Sino-Soviet split in the 1960s was one of the most significant events of the Cold War. Why did the Sino-Soviet alliance, hailed by its creators as ""unbreakable""", ""eternal""", and as representing ""brotherly solidarity""", break up? Why did their relations eventually evolve into |

open hostility and military confrontation? With the publication of several works on the subject in the past decade, we are now in a better position to understand and explain the origins of the Sino-Soviet split. But at the same time new questions and puzzles have also emerged. The scholarly debate on this issue
