

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910462005603321
Autore	Pomakoy Keith
Titolo	Helping humanity [[electronic resource] ] : American policy and genocide rescue // Keith Pomakoy
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Lanham, Md., : Lexington Books, c2011
ISBN	1-280-67964-6 9786613656575 0-7391-6905-X
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (245 p.)
Disciplina	364.15/1
Soggetti	Genocide - Government policy - United States Genocide Humanitarianism Electronic books. United States Foreign relations 19th century United States Foreign relations 20th century
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 209-228) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Strictly speaking, the term genocide only fits the Holocaust : what is genocide? -- American philanthropy -- The good Samaritan : America and the war with Spain -- They fear that the matter will have to run its course : America and the Armenian tragedy -- No cardinals in Russia : America and the terror-famine -- Jews, Zionists and social workers : American rescue policy in the caldron of World War II -- The United Nations is silent : facing genocide in the Cold War -- The world now stands as one : novus ordo seclorum.
Sommario/riassunto	Helping Humanity: American Policy and Genocide Rescue offers a scholarly examination of America's complicated reactions to genocide and genocide rescue. It provides a synthesis of humanitarian concerns within the broader narrative of American foreign policy that gives an underappreciated policy consideration the attention it is due. This book will serve as an approachable work both for those interested in genocide and specialists in foreign policy.

