

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910462099503321
Autore	Keller Morton
Titolo	The unbearable heaviness of governing [[electronic resource]] : the Obama administration in historical perspective // Morton Keller
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Stanford, Calif., : Hoover Institution Press, 2010
ISBN	0-8179-1266-5
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (201 p.)
Collana	Hoover Institution Press publication ; ; no. 601
Disciplina	324.9730931
Soggetti	Electronic books. United States Politics and government 2009-
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Front Cover; Book Title; Copyright; Contents; Foreword; Acknowledgments; Introduction; Chapter One -Governing; Chapter Two -Fixing the Economy; Chapter Three -Into the Maze: Health Care; Chapter Four -Contexts: Analogy and Ideology; Chapter Five - Unfinished Business: Policy and Politics; Notes; About the Author; Index
Sommario/riassunto	Taking a critical look at the realities that have shaped the first stage of Barack Obama's presidency, Morton Keller offers a history-focused examination of Obama's developing style of governing, with particular attention to his signature policies of the stimulus, financial, and health care reforms. The author considers this presidency in light of the facts of contemporary political life and the nature of key government institutions, such as Congress and the bureaucracy, and discusses what may lie ahead for the president's policies and political prospects.