

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910462188103321
Autore	Elphick Richard
Titolo	The equality of believers [[electronic resource] ] : Protestant missionaries and the racial politics of South Africa / / Richard Elphick
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Charlottesville, : University of Virginia Press, 2012
ISBN	0-8139-3279-3
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (448 p.)
Collana	Reconsiderations in southern African history
Disciplina	276.8
Soggetti	Race relations - Religious aspects - Protestant churches Protestant churches - Missions - South Africa - History Electronic books. South Africa Race relations History
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Introduction: the equality of believers -- The missionaries, their converts, and their enemies -- The missionaries: from egalitarianism to paternalism -- The Africans: embracing the gospel of equality -- The Dutch settlers: confining the gospel of equality -- The political missionaries: "our religion must embody itself in action" -- The missionary critique of the African: witchcraft, marriage and sexuality -- The revolt of the Black clergy: "we can't be brothers" -- The benevolent empire and the social gospel -- The "native question" and the benevolent empire -- A Christian coalition of paternal elites -- The social gospel: the ideology of the benevolent empire -- High point of the Christian alliance: a South African Locarno -- The enemies of the benevolent empire: gelykstelling condemned -- The parting of the ways -- A special education for Africans? -- The abolition of the Cape franchise: a "door of citizenship" closed -- The evangelical invention of apartheid -- Neo-Calvinism: a world-view for a missionary folk -- The stagnation of the social gospel -- The abolition of the mission schools: a second "door of citizenship" closed -- A divided missionary impulse and its political heirs.

