

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910462526903321
Autore	Kilpatrick Judith <1946->
Titolo	There when we needed him [[electronic resource]] : Wiley Austin Branton, civil rights warrior / / Judith Kilpatrick
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Fayetteville, : University of Arkansas Press, 2007
ISBN	1-61075-422-0
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (252 p.)
Disciplina	340.092
	B
Soggetti	African American lawyers - Arkansas Civil rights movements - Arkansas - History - 20th century Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 171-210) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Acknowledgments; Introduction; 1. Character-Building; 2. Racism during World War II; 3. Citizen Activist; 4. Desegregating the University of Arkansas School of Law; 5. Arkansas Practice; 6. The Little Rock "Crisis"; 7. Little Rock Continued; 8. The Voter Education Project; 9. Burrowing from Within; 10. Last Gasp at Direct Action; 11. Private Practice Again; 12. Dean at Howard Law School; 13. Sidley & Austin; Epilogue; Notes ; Index
Sommario/riassunto	Judith Kilpatrick is a professor and associate dean at the University of Arkansas School of Law. She has written several articles about Wiley Austin Branton. There When We Needed Him is her first book.