Sommario/riassunto	All over Africa, an explosion in cultural productions of various genres is in evidence. Whether in relation to music, song and dance, drama, poetry, film, documentaries, photography, cartoons, fine arts, novels and short stories, essays, and (auto)biography; the continent is experiencing a robust outpouring of creative power that is as remarkable for its originality as its all-round diversity. Beginning from the late 1970's and early 1980's, the African continent has experienced the longest and deepest economic crises than at any other time since the period after the Second World War. Interesting...
