

|                         |  |
|-------------------------|--|
| 1. Record Nr.           | UNINA9910463413003321  |
| Autore                  | Cannon Eoin F. <1973->   |
| Titolo                  | The saloon and the mission : addiction, conversion, and the politics of redemption in American culture // Eoin F. Cannon   |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa      | Amherst, [Massachusetts] ; ; Boston, [Massachusetts] : , : University of Massachusetts Press, , 2013©2013  |
| ISBN                    | 1-61376-272-0  |
| Descrizione fisica      | 1 online resource (342 p.)   |
| Disciplina              | 362.29/15750973  |
| Soggetti                | Alcoholism - Social aspects - United States - HistoryAlcoholism - Treatment - United States - HistoryAlcoholics - Rehabilitation - United States - HistoryTemperance in literatureAlcoholism in literatureRescue missions (Church work) - United States - HistoryRecovery movement - United States - HistoryElectronic books.  |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Inglese  |
| Formato                 | Materiale a stampa   |
| Livello bibliografico   | Monografia   |
| Note generali           | Includes index.  |
| Nota di bibliografia    | Includes bibliographical references (pages 263-309) and index.   |
| Nota di contenuto       | Introduction : addiction recovery and the world as it should be -- The drunkard's conversion and the salvation of the social order -- "What a radical found in Water Street" -- The varieties of conversion polemic -- New Deal individualism and the big book of Alcoholics Anonymous -- Literary realism and the secularization of the drunkard's conversion -- The drinker's epiphany in modernist literature -- The iceman cometh and the drama of disillusion -- Recovery memoir and the crack-up of liberalism -- Conclusion : addiction in a new era of recovery. |