

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910463619703321
Autore	Langer Carol L.
Titolo	Applying theory to generalist social work practice : a case study approach // Carol L. Langer, Cynthia A. Lietz
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Hoboken, New Jersey : , : John Wiley & Sons, Inc., , [2015] ©2015
ISBN	1-118-85978-2 1-118-85971-5
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (337 p.)
Classificazione	SOC025000
Disciplina	361.3/2
Soggetti	Social service Social case work Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Machine generated contents note: CHAPTER ONE: The Role of Theories in Social Work Practice Introduction What is Theory? The Relevance of Studying Theory for Aspiring Social Workers Case Example Evidence-Based Practice Further Debates Theoretical Integration Common Elements Implementation of Theory: The Role of Microskills Conclusion Resources for Students References CHAPTER TWO: Ecological and Systems Theories Introduction A Historical Discussion of Ecological and Systems Theories Ecological and Systems Theories: Theoretical Principles Ecological and Systems Theories: Key Concepts Application of Ecological and Systems Theories within Social Work Practice Case Example Stories from the Field Student Application of Skills Strengths and Limitations of Ecological and Systems Theories Conclusion Resources for Students References CHAPTER THREE: The Strengths Perspective Introduction A Social Work History Lesson Limitations of the Medical Model Moving Toward a Strengths Perspective The Strengths Perspective: Key Concepts The Strengths Perspective: Principles Application of the Strengths Perspective within Social Work Practice Case Example Stories from the Field Student Application of Skills Limitations of the Strengths Perspective Conclusion Resources for

Students References CHAPTER FOUR: The Task-Centered Model
Introduction Historical Development Theoretical Assumptions The Task-Centered Model and the Helping Process Applicability of Task-
Centered Work Compatibility with Social Work Values and Ethics, Systems and Strengths Perspectives Case Example Stories from the Field Student Application of Skills Strengths and Limitations Conclusion
Resources for Students References CHAPTER FIVE: Conflict Theory
Introduction Historical Development of Conflict Theory Dialectical
Materialism Macro Case Example Mezzo Case Example Application of Conflict Theory to Social Work Practice Stories from the Field Student
Application of Skills Strengths and Limitations of Conflict Theory
Conclusion Resources for Students References CHAPTER SIX: Humanism and Client-Centered Theory Introduction A Historical Discussion of Client-Centered Theory Client-Centered Theory: Theoretical Principles
Client-Centered Theory: Key Concepts Stories from the Field
Application of Client-Centered Theory within Social Work Practice Case Example Student Application of Skills Strengths and Limitations of Humanism Conclusion Resources for Students References CHAPTER
SEVEN: Cognitive and Behavioral Theories Introduction A Historical Discussion of Behaviorism and Cognitive Theory Cognitive and Behavioral Theories: Key Concepts Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT)
Stories from the Field Application of Cognitive Behavioral Therapy within Social Work Practice Case Example Student Application of Skills
Benefits and Limitations of the Cognitive and Behavioral Theories
Conclusion Resources for Students References CHAPTER EIGHT:
Empowerment Theory Introduction Basic Assumptions of the Empowerment Perspective Development of Empowerment in Social Work Historical Example Contemporary Examples of the Need for Empowerment Social Work with Groups and Empowerment Case
Example Stories from the Field Student Application of Skills Strengths and Limitations of Empowerment Theory Conclusion Resources for Students References CHAPTER NINE: Narrative Theory Introduction A Historical Discussion of Narrative Theory Narrative Theory: Theoretical Assumptions Narrative Theory: Key Concepts Application of Narrative
Theory within Social Work Practice Case Example Stories from the Field Stories from the Field Student Application of Skills Strengths and Limitations of Narrative Theory Conclusion Resources for Students
References CHAPTER TEN: Solution-Focused Brief Therapy Introduction
Theoretical Assumptions of SFBT Historical Development Use of the SFBT in the Helping Process Case Example Stories from the Field
Student Application of Skills Strengths and Limitations of the Solution-
Focused Model Conclusion Resources for Students References CHAPTER
ELEVEN: Crisis Theory Introduction A Brief History of Crisis Theory
Levels of Crisis Stages of Experiencing and Resolving a Crisis Case
Example Critical Necessities of Each Stage The Critical Incident Stress
Debriefing and Management Protocol Stories from the Field Student
Application of Skills Strengths and Limitations of Crisis Theory
Conclusion Resources for Students References CHAPTER TWELVE:
Feminist and Critical Theories By Andrea N. Cimino, MSW, PhD
Introduction Historical Foundation and Overview of Critical Theory Basic Principles of Critical Theory Foundation and Historical Overview of Feminist Theory Basic Principles of Feminist Theory Similarities and Differences Key Concepts Principles of Feminist/Critical Theory within Social Work Practice Case Example Stories from the Field Student
Application of Skills Criticisms of Feminist and Critical Theory
Approaches Conclusion Resources for Students References Chapter
Thirteen: Transtheoretical Model Introduction Historical Foundation and Overview The Stages of Change Key Concepts Basic Principles

Motivational Interviewing Application Case Example Stories from the Field Student Application of Skills Strengths and Limitations of TTM and Motivational Interviewing Conclusion Resources for Students References
CHAPTER FOURTEEN: Theory and Practice: Pulling it all Together.

Sommario/riassunto

"The authors begin with an overview how theories are used in social work practice. The book then covers twelve evidence-based theories that are most commonly used by social workers with an undergraduate degree only: ecological & systems theory, strengths perspective, task-centered approach, conflict theory, humanistic & client centered, cognitive and behavioral theories, empowerment theory, constructivism, narrative theory, solution focused brief therapy, crisis theory, and critical and feminist theory"--