   Sommario/riassunto The study of moderation and mediation of youth treatment outcomes has been recognized as enormously beneficial in recent years. However, these benefits have never been fully documented or understood by researchers, clinicians, and students in training. After nearly 50 years of youth treatment outcome research, identifying moderators and mediators is the natural next step-shifting focus to mechanisms responsible for improved outcomes, identifying youth who will benefit from certain treatments or who are in need of alternative treatments, and recognizing the challenges associated with the study

Sommario/riassunto

This book presents the proceedings of the 14th International SPIN workshop on Model Checking Software, held in Berlin, Germany. Fourteen full papers are presented, together with four tool presentation papers and the abstracts of two invited talks. The papers are organized into topical sections covering directed model checking, partial order reduction, program analysis, exploration advances, modeling and case studies, and tool demonstrations.
