

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910464150603321
Autore	Govenar Alan B. <1952->
Titolo	Everyday music [[electronic resource] /] / Alan Govenar
Pubbl/distr/stampa	College Station, : Texas A&M University Press, 2012
ISBN	1-283-58429-8 9786613896742 1-60344-756-3
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (154 p.)
Collana	John and Robin Dickson series in Texas music
Disciplina	781.62009764
Soggetti	Folk music - Texas - History and criticism Folk musicians - Texas Electronic books. Texas Social life and customs 20th century Texas Social life and customs 21st century Texas Biography
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Julius Vita : Czech accordion, Seymour -- John Burrus : cowboy songs and country hymns, Stephenville -- Osceola Mays : spirituals and poems, Dallas -- Howard Dee "Wes" Westmoreland III : fiddling, Gustine -- Miguel Pedraza : Tigua drumming and chanting, El Paso -- Alexander H. Moore : Barrelhouse blues, Dallas -- W.W. Trammell : guitar maker and musician, Lone Star -- Lydia Mendoza : boleros, corridos, and rancheras, Houston -- Original oompah band : German dance music, Tivydale -- John Henry "Bones" Nobles : Bones percussion, Beaumont -- Yani Rose Keo : Cambodian music and dance, Houston -- Appendix : Traditional music in Texas radio series.
Sommario/riassunto	During the 1980's and again from 2009-2011, folklorist Alan Govenar traveled all over the state of Texas to interview local performers of traditional music of all types and to make recordings of this music. Many of these recordings were aired on the "Traditional music of Texas" radio program.