Sommario/riassunto	The present book investigates three short late Mamluk treatises about land properties (waqf) in the Palestinian city of Hebron, which the prophet Muhammad granted to Tamm al-Dar. The treatise entitled aw al-sr li-marifat abar Tamm al-Dr by al-Maqrz (d. 845/1442) is the core of the book. It is edited here for the first time on the sole basis of the copy corrected by the author. A facsimile of the manuscript is also provided at the end of the book. In order to illuminate the discourse on property rights and donation that prevailed in the Mamluk period and al-Maqrz's position, two additional treatises dealing with the same issue are included. The first is al-awb al-all an ukm balad al-all by Ibn aar al-Asqaln (d. 852/1448). The second is al-Fal al-amm f iq Tamm by al-Suy (911/1505). The three texts are fully translated and annotated and preceded by a thorough introduction.
