

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910465244703321
Autore	Smith H. Marriott
Titolo	The History of the 13th Battery Royal Field Artillery from 1759 to 1913 [[electronic resource]]
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Luton, : Andrews UK, 2012
ISBN	1-283-69313-5 1-78149-139-9
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (55 p.)
Disciplina	355.31 355.310941
Soggetti	Artillery, Field and mountain -- Great Britain -- History Great Britain -- Armed Forces -- Weapons systems -- History Great Britain -- Army -- Royal Regiment of Artillery -- Battery, 13th Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di contenuto	Cover; Contents; Front Matter; Frontispiece; Title Page; Body Matter; I: Early Years; II: Egypt; III: Corunna; IV: Vittoria to Waterloo; V: The Long Peace; VI: The Crimea; VII: The Mutiny and After; VIII: South African Campaign; Back Matter; Appendix A: Battery Movements and Stations; Appendix B: Battery Establishments; Appendix C: Pay of Various Ranks of 13th Battery R.F.A. from 1759 to 1913; Appendix D: Commanding Officers
Sommario/riassunto	As the author says, this history, published a year before the outbreak of the Great War, has been written for the soldiers of the battery, past, present and future. It is written in the form of a yearly diary with the year in the left margin, opposite the text describing events of that year. Some entries are very thin, a couple of lines, but other years have a more detailed story to tell - 1808/09 Corunna, 1855 the Crimea, and 1899-1901 the S. African War where the years are divided into mon...