

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910465487903321
Autore	Melville Gert
Titolo	The world of medieval monasticism : its history and forms of life // Gert Melville ; translated by James D. Mixson ; foreword by Giles Constable
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Collegeville, Minnesota : , : Cistercian Publications : , : Liturgical Press, , 2016 ©2016
ISBN	0-87907-499-X
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (303 p.)
Collana	Cisterican Studies Series ; ; Number 263
Disciplina	271.009/02
Soggetti	Monasticism and religious orders - Europe - History - Middle Ages, 600-1500 Monastic and religious life - Europe - History - Middle Ages, 600-1500 Monks - Europe - Social conditions Electronic books. Europe Church history 600-1500
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references.
Nota di contenuto	Intro; Titlepage; Copyright; Dedication; Contents; Foreword by Giles Constable; Preface; List of Abbreviations; Translator's Note; 1. The Beginnings; 2. The Benedictine Rule and Its Longevity; 3. The Flowering of the Benedictines; 4. Return to the Desert; 5. The Regular Canons: The Clergy's New Self-Understanding; 6. The Cistercians: Collegiality Instead of Hierarchy; 7. The Success of the Cistercian Model; 8. Diversity and Competition; 9. New Concepts of Belief; 10. The Franciscans: A Mendicant Order with the Whole World as Its Monastery; 11. The Dominicans: Holy Preaching and Pastoral Care 12. Transformations of Eremitical Life 13. A New Chapter in the Story of the Vita Religiosa; 14. Mendicant Orders in Conflict: Struggles over Poverty and Observance; 15. Reformers and Reforms at the End of the Middle Ages; 16. A Look Back; 17. Fundamental Structures of the Vita Religiosa in the Middle Ages; Chronology; Map; Bibliography; Image Credits; Retreat from the World; The Establishment of Monastic Communities; The First Monasteries in Europe; Benedict as "Textual

Trace"; The Rule of Saint Benedict; The Career of Benedict and His Rule
The Second Benedict and the Reform of the Frankish Monasteries
A New Beginning in Lotharingia; Cluny: The Establishment of Monastic Liberty;
The "Cluniac Church": A Congregation of Monasteries; Ordo Cluniacensis; Church for the World; Monastic Life in Service of King and Nobility, Pope and Bishop; The New Hermits; To Live by One's Own Law; Charismatic Preaching and Religious Movements; A Return to the Institutions of the Church; Robert's Path from Molesme to Citeaux and Back; The Measure of the Pure Rule; The Charter of Charity and the Invention of the "Order"
From the Premonstratensians to the Gilbertines and the Carthusians
Cluny, Knights, and Hospitals: The Reform of Older Congregations and the Creation of New "Functional" Orders; The Search for Religious Identity; Beguines and Humiliati: A New Lay Piety; "Holy Preachers" and "Lesser Brothers"; Francis of Assisi and His Community;
The Legacy of Francis; Clare of Assisi; Dominic and the Building of a New Order; Rationality and Constitution in the Service of the Salvation of Souls; The Carmelites: From the Mountain into the Cities; The Augustinian Hermits; The Three Ages of Salvation History
Eremitical Congregations and the Work of Peter of Morrone
Devotio Moderna; The Revelations of Birgitta; Reform from Above: Pope Benedict XII; Reform from Below: The Rise of the Observants; The Individual and the Community; The Monastery and the Law; Institutional Forms: Establishment and Preservation; Constructing Particular Pasts; Cloister and World; Temporalia; On the Search for God toward Knowledge of the World
