Sommario/riassunto	The book 'Verhandlungen des Vereins für Sozialpolitik in Nürnberg 1911' documents the proceedings of the Association for Social Policy held in Nuremberg in October 1911. It presents discussions and reports from prominent academics and policymakers on pressing social issues of the time. The association, founded in 1872, serves as a bridge between scholarly research and practical actions in social policy, aiming to foster objectivity and diverse perspectives in its publications. The book emphasizes the importance of social education and enlightenment, advocating for a balanced approach to integrating ethical judgments in social policy discourse. It is intended for scholars, policymakers, and anyone interested in the development and impact of social policies.
