Sommario/riassunto

In Südtirol wird im 19. Jahrhundert die Regionalisierung der Architektur populär. Ähnlich dem „Châlet“ in den Schweizer Bergen, wird das Tirolerhaus Sinnbild für den alpinen Lebensraum, für die Landschaft und ihre Traditionen. Auch Burganlagen wie Schloss Prösels werden instandgesetzt; repräsentative Landhäuser, dem Landschaftsbild angepasst, entstehen. Importierte Architektur-Module, ähnlich dem Baukastensystem des Tirolerhauses, kommen dabei zum Einsatz. Das Buch zeigt die historische Entwicklung der Bauformen und ihre Vermarktung als regionale Architektur bis hin zu ihrer Entwicklung im 20. Jahrhundert auf. Es begleitet eine Ausstellung im Tischlerhaus von Schloss Prösels und ist zugleich die erste, wissenschaftlich fundierte Aufarbeitung des Themas.

In the 19th century, the regionalization of architecture became popular in South Tyrol. Similar to the "chalet" of the Swiss mountains, the Tirolerhaus became a symbol of alpine living, of the landscape, and of its traditions. Likewise, castles such as Prösels Castle were repaired, and prestigious country houses were built in keeping with the typical style of the region. This led to the import of architecture modules that are similar to the modular system of the Tirolerhaus. The book outlines the historical development of building forms and their marketing as regional architecture through to developments in the 20th century. It accompanies an exhibition in the Tischlerhaus of Prösels Castle, and is also the first scientifically based treatment of the subject.
