

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910474055203321
Autore	Spicer Edward Holland <1906-1983, >
Titolo	Impounded People : Japanese-Americans in the Relocation Centers // Edward H. Spicer, Asael T. Hansen, Katherine Luomala, Marvin K. Opler
Pubbl/distr/stampa	University of Arizona Press, 2021 Tucson, Arizona : , : University of Arizona Press, , 2021 ©2021
ISBN	9780816501755 0816501750
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (1 online resource viii, 342 pages) : illustrations, maps, plans
Soggetti	Japanese Americans
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	"Written in 1946 as one of the final reports of ... the War Relocation Authority."
Nota di contenuto	Prologue. The process of scapegoating ; A west coast dilemma ; The evacuated people -- Moving in. Impact of the relocation centers ; The administrative staff ; Evacuee and caucasian ; Work and wages ; A world of rumor ; The blocks: foundations of community life ; Community cross currents ; The outside ; Crises -- Being sorted. Registration-a new crisis ; An emerging framework of community life ; The sorting ; Fruits of segregation -- Settling down. Programs-government and evacuee ; Evacuee orientations ; Stabilization of staff-evacuee relations ; The center way of life ; Tule Lake ; Disintegrating factors-the war and resettlement -- Getting out. Holding the centers ; The stake in America ; Disintegration of the centers ; Confusion at Tule Lake -- Epilogue. The journey continued ; The journey back ; Discontinuities and continuities.
Sommario/riassunto	This important final report of the War Relocation Authority, written in 1946 and now released in book form with a comprehensive introduction by Edward H. Spicer, describes the growth and changes in the community life and how attitudes of Japanese-American relocatees and WRA administrators evolved, adjusted, and affected one another on political, social, and psychological levels.

