

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910476946503321
Autore	Fois Marisa
Titolo	Héritages coloniaux : Les Suisses d'Algérie
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Seismo, 2021
Descrizione fisica	1 electronic resource (186 p.)
Collana	Présent et histoire
Soggetti	Colonialism & imperialism
Lingua di pubblicazione	Francese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Sommario/riassunto	What relationship do European countries have with their colonial past? The way they deal with, reread, reconstruct, forget or conceal this part of their history is decisive for understanding today's geopolitics and for questioning current societies. The Confederation, under its cloak of neutrality, has long denied its involvement in colonial processes. However, the Swiss participated in the settlement of French Algeria, where they exercised forms of domination, notably through private investments. When Algerian independence was proclaimed, the Confederation faced the delicate task of organising the 'return' of Swiss settlers. Following nationalisations and expropriations overseas, property had to be protected, and pensions paid. This book offers valuable tools for understanding colonial history in a decolonised world. Supported by Swiss, French, Italian and English archival sources most of which have never been published before this study reconstructs the interplay of scales and highlights the decisive role of the Association des Suisses spoliés d'

Algérie ou d'outremer
