

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910479872503321
Autore	Daley Paul
Titolo	Canberra [[electronic resource] /] / Paul Daley
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Sydney, N.S.W., : NewSouth, 2012
ISBN	1-74224-121-2 1-74224-611-7
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (336 p.)
Collana	City series
Disciplina	919.47
Soggetti	Electronic books. Canberra (A.C.T.) History Canberra (A.C.T.) Description and travel Canberra (A.C.T.) Social life and customs
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di contenuto	""Contents""; ""Prologue""; ""THE PLAINS""; ""MONUMENTS IN THE GRASS""; ""CONTINUING CITY""; ""Epilogue""; ""Notes and Acknowledgments""
Sommario/riassunto	Canberra is a city of orphans. People arrive temporarily for work, but stay on because they discover unanticipated promise and opportunity in a city that the rest of the country loathes but can't really do without. Daley's Canberra begins and ends at the lake and its forgotten suburbs, traces of which can still be found on Burley Griffin's banks. It meanders through the cultural institutions that chronicle the unsavoury early life of Canberra, the graveyard at St John's where the pioneers rest and the mountains that surround the city. In Canberra people don't ask you where you went to school,