

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910479972603321
Autore	Cunningham Hugh
Titolo	The Reputation of philanthropy Since 1750 : Britain and beyond // Hugh Cunningham
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Manchester, Michigan : , : Manchester University Press, , [2020] ©2020
ISBN	1-5261-5207-X 1-5261-4639-8
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (218 pages) : : illustrations
Disciplina	360.941
Soggetti	Charities - Great Britain - History Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Writing the history of philanthropy -- The profile of philanthropy -- The genesis of philanthropy -- John Howard, the philanthropist -- Howard's legacy : philanthropy and crime -- Universal philanthropy versus patriotism : the impact -- The French Revolution, 1789-1815 -- The Times and the telescope : philanthropy, 1815-50 -- Mid- Victorian philanthropy, 1850-80 -- The failure of philanthropy? 1880-1914 -- Philanthropy since 1914.
Sommario/riassunto	Most people now associate philanthropy with donations of money by the rich to good causes. It has not always been so. The Reputation of Philanthropy explores how our modern definition came about and asks why praise for philanthropy and philanthropists has always been matched by criticism. Were we really capable of loving all of humankind? Was it possible that what was thought of as philanthropy might create a dependency class and do more harm than good? Was it sensible to focus so much on far away places to the neglect of the poor at home? Deeply researched, timely and accessible, this book will inform today's thinking about the role that philanthropy should play in British society. The criticisms of philanthropy in the past have telling echoes in the present.

