

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910480829003321
Autore	Marshall Ineke Haen
Titolo	Minorities, Migrants, and Crime [[electronic resource] ] : Diversity and Similarity Across Europe and the United States
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Thousand Oaks, : SAGE Publications, 1997
ISBN	1-4522-4987-3
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (265 p.)
Disciplina	364.108
Soggetti	Discrimination in criminal justice administration Ethnic relations Minorities Race relations Social Welfare & Social Work Social Sciences Criminology, Penology & Juvenile Delinquency Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di contenuto	Cover; Contents; Introduction; Acknowledgments; Chapter 1 - Minorities, Crime, and Criminal justice in the United States; Chapter 2 - Minorities, Crime, and Criminal Justice in Britain; Chapter 3 - Minorities, Crime, and Criminal fustice in Sweden; Chapter 4 - Minorities, Crime, and Criminal Justice in the Federal Republic of Germany; Chapter 5 - Minorities, Crime, and Criminal Justice in Italy; Chapter 6 - Minorities, Crime, and Criminal Justice in France; Chapter 7 - Minorities, Crime, and Criminal Justice in Belgium; Chapter 8 - Minorities, Crime, and Criminal Justice in Spain Chapter 9 - Minorities, Crime, and Criminal Justice in the Netherlands Chapter 10 - Minorities and Crime in Europe and the United States: More Similar than Different!; Index; About the Authors
Sommario/riassunto	This ideal resource is the result of an enthusiastic collaboration of authors from both Europe and the United States. Highlighting diversities and similarities found in law enforcement priorities, punishment philosophy and practices, and media coverage, the volume also includes an enlightening discourse on political, scholarly and public issues critical to this area of research.

---