Sommario/riassunto	“Este libro es una excelente contribution al conocimiento del marxismo latinoamericano, como conjunto de reflexiones teoricas comprometidas con las clases subalternas y las luchas populares. Los autores discutidos por Fabián Cabaluz y Tomas Torres son muy distintos, por su origen nacional, sus enfoques temáticos, sus orientaciones políticas: René Zavaleta Mercado, Alvaro García Linera, Aníbal Quijano y Enrique Dussel. Con todo, como lo demuestran estos ensayos, son parte de un marxismo latinoamericano heterodoxo, herético, anti dogmático, que intenta crear conceptos y herramientas intelectuales nuevas para entender América Latina - en oposición a un otro tipo de marxismo, que solo busca aplicar los modelos teóricos y políticos formulados por el Comintern, o por la URSS estalinista”
