Sommario/riassunto	L'Unique Voyage de sa vie de Georges Vizynos (1849-1896) est une nouvelle publiée en 1884 qui rend compte de l'oscillation de l'identité grecque entre Orient et Occident, passé et présent, tradition et modernité. Elle permet d'appréhender le fait diglossique grec dans toute sa complexité. La langue de Vizynos est en effet caractérisée par une imbrication des variétés savante, populaire et dialectale. Le commentaire propose dans ce volume de resituer L'Unique Voyage de sa vie dans le genre de la nouvelle néo-hellénique et fait émerger ses spécificités par rapport à des courants littéraires et des auteurs européens. Il souligne aussi l'actualité de Vizynos et de son œuvre, notamment au regard de la place que prennent les problématiques d'interculturalité, d'altérité, d'hybridité.
