Sommario/riassunto	Situated between the Victorians and Modernism, the fin de siecle is an exciting and rewarding period to study. In the literature and art of the 1890s, the processes of literary and cultural change can be seen in action. In this, more than any previous decade, literature was an active and controversial participant within debates over morality, aesthetics, politics and science, as Victorian certainties began to break down. Oscar Wilde, Aubrey Beardsley, H. G. Wells, Bram Stoker and Olive

Schreiner were among the most prominent, occasionally even notorious, writers and artists of the period, challenging establishment values and producing a distinctive literature of their own. This volume includes the main currents of radical and innovative thinking in the period, as well as the attempts to resist them. It will be of great interest to students of Victorian and twentieth-century literature, art and cultural history.

Cet ouvrage rassemble sept contributions d'un cycle de conférences organisé à l'occasion de la commémoration du centenaire de la Première Guerre mondiale par le Centre Toulousain d'Histoire du Droit et des Idées Politiques en collaboration avec le Collège supérieur de droit et l'École Européenne de droit de l'Université Toulouse Capitole. Trois temporalités sont présentées et analysées, elles intéressent les juristes en guerre et la guerre des juristes. Tout d'abord l'action, la réflexion et la pratique au quotidien de juristes plonges dans ce conflit sont mises à jour. La Grande Guerre a aussi été un temps particulier d'adaptation et d'application du droit pour répondre aux circonstances exceptionnelles. Enfin, la guerre prend place dans un mouvement long de renforcement du rôle de l'État.
