Sommario/riassunto	We are delighted to welcome you to ISSTA 2021, the 30th edition of the International Symposium on Software Testing and Analysis. The conference was initially scheduled to take place in Aarhus, Denmark, but due to the ongoing pandemic, it will take place online instead. ISSTA celebrates 30 editions this year! To mark the occasion, we are organizing two panels on the past and future of software testing and analysis, featuring senior members of our community.
