

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910511445603321
Autore	Thibodeaux Sandra, Dr
Titolo	Mr. Takahashi and other falling secrets / / Sandra Thibodeaux
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Sydney : , : Currency Press, , 2017 ©2005
ISBN	1-76062-093-9
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (55 pages) : illustrations
Collana	Currency plays
Disciplina	A822.4
Soggetti	Bombing, Aerial - Australia - Darwin (N.T.) World War, 1939-1945 - Australia - Darwin (N.T.) Electronic books. Darwin (N.T.) Social life and customs Dramas
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Playscript. "Commemorating the 75th anniversary of the Bombing of Darwin" ... front cover. "Shortlisted for the Patrick White Playwrights' Award" ... front cover. In association with Corrugated Iron Youth Arts, Darwin.
Sommario/riassunto	Darwin 1942 -- WWII: A town collapses under the threat of invasion as bombshells drop on Northern Australia. Mothers and daughters, sisters, friends and entire cultures are torn apart by the secrets that start to fall. Is Mr Takahashi to blame? Japan unleashes a wave of attacks on Northern Australia, and Darwin is hit with more bombs than Pearl Harbour. Mr Takahashi turns the lens upon ordinary people caught in the storm that was World War II. It tells the stories of Darwin's multicultural and Indigenous women whose lives were forever changed by the bombings of February 19. Japan also attacked Cairns and Townsville.