

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910531675503321
Autore	Leigh Eve
Titolo	Silent planet / / Eve Leigh
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, England : , : Oberon Books, , [2014] ©2014
ISBN	1-78319-704-8
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (96 p.)
Collana	Oberon modern plays
Disciplina	809.2
Soggetti	Prohibited books Books and reading Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di contenuto	Cover; Half-title Page; Title Page; Copyright; Dedication; Contents; Characters; Scene 1; Scene 2; Scene 3; Scene 4; Scene 5; Scene 6; Scene 7; Scene 8; Scene 9
Sommario/riassunto	And there is another planet, like ours. They can't see the sky, on that planet. Because their atmosphere is like a mirror. They look into the sky and see only themselves and the things they've made. So everything in their world can easily be understood. All they want is to be safe and comfortable. They fatten themselves on poison food. And when they look into the sky, they are struck dumb. By the greatness of their works.  At the height of the Cold War, dissident writer Gavriil is detained in a Soviet mental prison as a punishment for protesting against the government. His only escape is