

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910515610003321
Autore	Formaggio, Dino <1914-2008>
Titolo	L'arte come idea e come esperienza / Dino Formaggio ; a cura di Elio Franzini
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Brescia, : Morcelliana, 2018
ISBN	978-88-372-3168-2
Descrizione fisica	XVII, 279 p. : ill. ; 21 cm
Collana	Estetica ; 13
Disciplina	111.850945
Locazione	FSPBC
Collocazione	COLLEZ. 2901 (13)
Lingua di pubblicazione	Italiano
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Nota di bibliografia	Contiene bibl. (pp. 233-255)

2. Record Nr.	UNINA9910548182903321
Autore	Cohen-Almagor Raphael
Titolo	The Republic, Secularism and Security : France versus the Burqa and the Niqab / / by Raphael Cohen-Almagor
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Cham : , : Springer International Publishing : , : Imprint : Springer, , 2022
ISBN	9783030946692 9783030946685
Edizione	[1st ed. 2022.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (74 pages)
Collana	SpringerBriefs in Political Science, , 2191-5474
Disciplina	361.610944 211.60944
Soggetti	Europe - Politics and government Comparative government Political science Elections Human rights Religion and politics European Politics Comparative Politics Governance and Government Electoral Politics Politics and Human Rights Politics and Religion
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Introduction -- The Underpinning Values of the French Republic -- The Shaping of the Republic: The Influence of Colonialism, Immigration, and Terrorism -- Banning the Burqa and the Niqab -- Conclusion..
Sommario/riassunto	This book analyses French cultural policies in the face of what the French government perceives as a challenge to its Republican secular raison d'être . It makes general arguments about France's changing identity and specific arguments about the burqa and niqab ban. The book further explains how French history shaped the ideology of secularism and of public civil religion, and how colonial legacy, immigration, fear of terrorism, and security needs have led France to adopt the trinity of indivisibilité, sécurité, laïcité while paying homage to the traditional trinity of liberté, égalité, fraternité. The book argues that while this motto of the French Revolution is still symbolically and politically important, its practical significance as it has been translated to policy implementation has been eroded. It shows how the emergence of the new trinity at the expense of the old one is evident when analyzing the debates concerning cultural policies in France in the face of the Islamic garb, the burqa, and the niqab, which are perceived as a challenge to France's national secular raison d'être. Subsequently, the book raises various important questions, such as: Is the burqa and niqab ban socially just? Does it reasonably balance the preservation of societal values and freedom of conscience? What are the true motives behind the ban? Has the discourse changed in the age of COVID-19, when all people are required to wear a mask in the public space? Therefore, this book is a must-read for students, scholars, and researchers of political science, as well as a general audience interested in a better understanding of French politics, elections, cultural policy, secularism, and identity. .
