

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910548269103321
Autore	Camilleri Nicola <1984->
Titolo	Staatsangehörigkeit und Rassismus : Rechtsdiskurse und Verwaltungspraxis in den Kolonien Eritrea und Deutsch-Ostafrika (1882 – 1919) // Nicola Camilleri
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Frankfurt am Main, : Max Planck Institute for Legal History and Legal Theory, 2021
ISBN	3-944773-37-3
Descrizione fisica	1 Online Resource (1 Online-Ressource XIV, 297 Seiten) : Karten
Collana	Global perspectives on legal history ; ; volume 19
Soggetti	Kolonialismus Staatsangehörigkeit Hochschulschrift Italienisch-Ostafrika Deutsch-Ostafrika
Lingua di pubblicazione	Tedesco
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Dissertation eingereicht unter dem Titel: "Koloniale Untertanen : die Politik der Staatsangehörigkeit im italienischen Eritrea und Deutsch-Ostafrika (1882-1919)".
Sommario/riassunto	When Italy and Germany joined the 'scramble for Africa' and established colonies on the continent in the late 19th century, they, like other imperial powers before them, had to deal with the question of how to define the legal status of the inhabitants of these territories. This book takes Eritrea and German East Africa as case studies to comparatively analyze norms and practices of citizenship. It focuses on racism and other elements that influenced colonial governmentality.