

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910548269703321
Autore	Series Lucy
Titolo	Deprivation of liberty in the shadows of the institution // Lucy Series
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Bristol : , : Bristol University Press, , 2022
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (xv, 299 pages)
Disciplina	344.4105232
Soggetti	Detention of persons - Great Britain Human rights - Great Britain
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Nota di contenuto	Front Cover -- Title page -- Copyright information -- Dedication -- Table of contents -- Cover Description -- List of abbreviations -- Acknowledgments -- A note on terminology -- Series editor's preface -- 1 Introduction -- Social care detention: a post-carceral socio-legal phenomenon -- Regulating the 'invisible asylum' -- About this book -- A note on the COVID-19 pandemic -- 2 Distinguishing Social Care Detention -- Locus -- Regulatory form -- Target populations -- Problems, rationalities and legal technologies -- Elongated temporality -- Legal technologies -- Empowerment and vulnerability Professionals and expertise -- The role of families -- 3 The Law of Institutions -- The law of institutions: a landscape sketch -- Regulating the 'trade in lunacy' -- Lunacy (law) reform -- Frontiers of resistance -- Domestic psychiatry -- Non-restraint -- Partitioning populations -- 'Idiots' and 'senile dementers' within lunacy law -- Workhouse 'care' -- Idiots asylums -- Mental deficiency colonies -- 4 The Post-carceral Landscape of Care -- Ideologies and reformers -- Scandals -- Sociological critique -- 'Independent living' and disability rights -- Opposition to psychiatry -- Normalization Person-centred care -- First-wave deinstitutionalization: from medical to social care -- From workhouses to 'sunshine hotels' -- Marketization and 'personalization' -- 'Homes not hospitals' -- Second-wave deinstitutionalization -- Supported living and supported decision making -- Deinstitutionalizing older people? -- The institutional treadmill -- Family-based care -- 5 Social Care Detention in Human Rights Law -- Human rights at the end

of the carceral era -- The post-carceral turn in international human rights law -- Recognizing social care detention in human rights law
Social care detention under the ECHR -- Monitoring social care detention -- Abolitionist human rights -- Social care detention and abolitionist human rights -- 6 Institution/Home -- Home as territory -- Choice and control over everyday life -- Loss of privacy -- Control of the threshold -- Home as territory in liminal spaces of care -- Home as a centre for self-identity -- Home as a social and cultural unit -- Homes, institutions and families -- Batch living -- Access, inclusion and belonging in community -- The aesthetics of home and institutions -- Liminal places, contested spaces Regulating the micro? -- 7 Regulatory Tremors -- To 'informality' and back again -- Regulating the community -- Defining institutions -- Taming institutions -- Care and capacity law -- The 'non-volitional' -- The new capacity jurisdiction -- Bournemouth: the challenge to informality -- The Deprivation of Liberty Safeguards -- 8 The Acid Test -- MIG, MEG and P -- MIG and MEG: reported facts -- P: reported facts -- The contours of liberty before Cheshire West -- Deprivation of liberty as removal from the family and home -- Family life as freedom -- 'Normality' and the comparator.

Sommario/riassunto

This book presents a socio-legal analysis of social care detention in the post-carceral era. Drawing from disability rights law and the meanings of 'home' and 'institution' it proposes solutions to the paradoxical implications of the 2014 UK Supreme Court ruling on the meaning of 'deprivation of liberty'.
