Sommario/riassunto	Pourquoi sommes-nous si avides de mobilite et de changement ? Pourquoi le repos est-il percu comme illegitime et la surcharge de travail, la norme ? Pourquoi nous appelle-t-on constamment a etre autonomes et proactifs ? Pourquoi la politique, la pedagogie, la justice ou le management se trouvent-ils valorises par l'ajout du terme « participatif » ? Pourquoi la flexibilite et l'adaptabilite sont-elles erigees en vertus cardinales ? Pourquoi les frontieres font-elles partout l'objet de lutttes, que l'on veuille les abattre ou les fortifier ? Cet ouvrage sonde nos representations de l'espace, du temps et de la mobilite, pour reveler l'ampleur du bouleversement de notre rapport au monde qu'elles produisent. Il en resulte l'emergence d'un « ideal mobilitaire », fonde sur une valorisation de la mobilite pour elle-meme, et articule en quatre imperatifs : activite, activation, participation et adaptation. Bien au-dela du domaine des deplacements physiques, cette injonction a la mobilite etend son emprise sur la famille, le travail, les territoires nationaux, les genres, les sexes ou encore la prison, les redefinissant profondement. Ce volume propose non seulement des cle pour mieux comprendre les representations de la mobilite et les normes sociales qui en decoulent, mais egalement une grille d'analyse elargissant considerablement le champ des etudes de la mobilite.
