Sommario/riassunto	The African Human Rights Law Reports include cases decided by the United Nations human rights treaty bodies, the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights and domestic judgments from different African countries. This eighth volume of the Reports for the first time also includes judgments that deal with human rights issues from the courts of African regional economic communities. The Reports are a joint publication of the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights and the Centre for Human Rights, University of Pretoria, South Africa. PULP also publishes the French version of these Reports, Recueil Africain des Decisions des Droits Humains. The Reports, as well as other material of relevance to human rights law in Africa, may be found on the website of the Centre for Human Rights at www.chr.up.ac.za . Hard copies of the Reports can be obtained from the Centre for Human Rights. Editorial changes have been kept to a minimum, and are confined to changes that are required to ensure consistency in style (with regard to abbreviations, capitalisation, punctuation and quotes) and to avoid obvious errors related to presentation. Quotes and references have, where possible, been checked against the original. Corrections which may affect the meaning are indicated by square brackets.
