Sommario/riassunto	Comment accéder aux récits des sociétés contemporaines qui ne cessent de se pluraliser et de se complexifier ? Les sociétés s'influencent dans un contexte de mondialisation tout en vivant leurs propres mutations, ruptures, conflits, fragmentations. Comment travailler sur des terrains de recherche « d'ici » et de « là-bas » ? À partir de recherches en France, au Québec, au Maroc, en Chine, à Singapour, en Bulgarie, au Liban, en Afrique centrale, en Indonésie... est proposée dans cet ouvrage une théorie du cosmopolitisme méthodologique pour penser les dynamiques à la fois locales et globales propres à des terrains de recherche perçus, représentés comme proches ou lointains. La méthode sociologique est définie ici dans toute son ampleur comme théorie en actes émancipée de toute forme d'hégémonie occidentale afin de comprendre la pluralité des sociétés et s'inscrire dans un vrai processus d'internationalisation des sciences sociales.

Sommario/riassunto

This book discusses men's friendships in relation to queer, discursive, and intersectional feminist theories. It analyses stories of intimacy, touch, hugs, and conversations, connecting these with current discussions within feminism and critical masculinity studies on "new" men, men's political activism, and how friendships are lived and conceptualised in relation to heteronormative relationship ideals. Drawing on individual and dyadic interviews with middle-class Swedish men, all engaged in or sympathetic to feminist issues in some sense, this volume shows that Swedish gender equality ideologies as well as feminist, therapeutic, neo-liberal, and individualist discourses prevalent in the Western world structured the men's friendships and their engagement with gender politics. Chapters cover friendship temporalities, gendered friendship ideals, friendship as men's politics, and friendship as performed in interaction. Bridging the literatures of feminist research and friendship, the author points to tensions and contradictions in pro-feminist men's political projects and in contemporary masculine positions.
