

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910642970703321
Titolo	The role of learning in psychotherapy [[electronic resource]] : a Ciba Foundation Symposium / / edited by Ruth Porter
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Churchill, 1968
ISBN	1-280-59188-9 9786613621719 0-470-71966-4 0-470-71726-2
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (356 p.)
Collana	Novartis Foundation Symposia
Altri autori (Persone)	PorterRuth
Disciplina	616.89 616.891
Soggetti	Behavior therapy Psychotherapy
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and indexes.
Nota di contenuto	THE ROLE OF LEARNING IN PSYCHOTHERAPY; Contents; Preface; Chairman's opening remarks; The persistence of abnormal behaviour in monkeys following isolation rearing; Discussion; Methods of assessing the results of psychotherapy; Discussion; Psychodynamic assessment of the outcome of psycho- therapy; Discussion; Controlled trials in behaviour therapy; Discussion; Learning to solve emotional problems: a controlled study of short-term anxiety-provoking psychotherapy; Discussion; Basic aspects of learning in the psychology and psycho-pathology of the child; Discussion Psychotherapy: placebo effect and/or learningDiscussion; Behaviour therapy and graded structure; Discussion; Assessment of token economy programmes in psychiatric hospitals; Discussion; The learning component in the dynamic therapeutic situation; Discussion; Modelling approaches to the modification of phobic disorders; Discussion; The psychotherapeutic ingredient in the learning process; Discussion; General discussion; Prospects and possibilities in the development of behaviour therapy; Discussion; Psychoanalytic psychology and learning theory; Discussion

Visceral learning and other additional facts potentially applicable to psychotherapyDiscussion; Group discussion; Chairman's closing remarks; Author Index; Subject Index

---