Sommario/riassunto	What is presented in this volume is a collection of studies dedicated to Silvia Morgana and a collection entitled to Milan: to Silvia Morgana as a teacher and intellectual; in Milan as a place of the heart, of the soul and of a scientific, educational and cultural commitment to which the scholar has kept faith for many years. It is, therefore, a miscellany that wants to be the place where a is condensed symbolically and tangibly, and a correspondence of consolidated interests over years of common work and spiritual proximity; a collection dedicated to "his" city with which the students testify their affection and their gratitude for an unsurpassed magisterium; and with which friends and colleagues celebrate a wealth of humanity and a depth of incomparable interests.

Sommario/riassunto	Das Buch enthält 13 ausführliche Portrats österreichischer Historiker. Es knüpft konzeptionell an zwei Vorgängerbände an, die 2008 und 2012 erschienen sind, und schließt diese Serie nun ab. Die Portrats setzen sich mit den wissenschaftlichen Karrieren und Werken der Historiker auseinander sowie mit ihrer Einbindung in akademische Netzwerke und politische Tätigkeiten. Portratiert werden in dieser Reihenfolge: Oswald Redlich (1858-1944), Ludo Moritz Hartmann (1865-1924), Hermann Wopfner (1876-1963), Hugo Hassinger (1877-1952), Hans Uebersberger (1877-1962), Adolf Helbok (1883-1968), Camillo Praschniker (1884-1949), Balduin Saria (1893-1974), Erna Patzelt (1894-1987), Lucie Varga (1904-1941), Otto Brunner (1898-1982), Richard Wolfram (1901-1995) und Taras von Borodajkewycz (1902-1984).
