

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910679722903321
Autore	Cook Thomas A. <1953->
Titolo	Global sourcing logistics [[electronic resource] ] : how to manage risk and gain competitive advantage in a worldwide marketplace // Thomas A. Cook
Pubbl/distr/stampa	New York, : American Management Association, c2007
ISBN	1-281-12659-4 9786611126599 0-8144-2981-5
Descrizione fisica	xix, 378 p. : ill
Disciplina	658.7
Soggetti	Industrial procurement - United States Purchasing - United States Business logistics - United States Risk management - United States
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Title from title screen. Includes index.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Developing foreign sourcing -- The global sourcing model -- Landed costs -- Post 9/11 and the affect on global purchasing -- Risk management and insurance -- Developing an inbound supply chain risk management strategy -- Closing remarks.
Sommario/riassunto	More than ever, global sourcing is an economic necessity for companies large and small, and in every industry. But with advantages in price and terms come new risks that businesses must approach effectively lest their supply chain -- and ultimately the whole enterprise -- be undermined. Global Sourcing Logistics offers businesses a blueprint for creating standard operating procedures for managing the risks of their inbound supply chains. Filled with hands-on solutions to the challenges of global commerce, the book covers: * reasons to (or not to) source globally * measuring the risks versus those of other sourcing alternatives * how to reduce landed costs * compliance management and new Customs and Homeland Security issues * insurance, liability, and loss control * and much more A must-have resource for all sourcing, supply chain, risk management, and import/export professionals, the book features tools for creating a comprehensive program to ensure competitive advantage while avoiding the pitfalls that can undermine even powerful businesses and seasoned supply chain veterans.

---